

RUNNING SHORTS

Plenty of local runners at the races

By Ken Johnson

Since initiation of this Running Shorts column in 2007, the number of local runners participating in races has grown tremendously.

There is hardly room in the column for anything but race results. That's good. The sport of running is growing and more runners are taking advantage of the benefits that races offer; competition, social interaction with other runners and personal goals.

Alvin Ingalla, 37, achieved his personal goal of completing a marathon on Saturday.

Ingalla, a physical therapist at Huntsville Memorial Hospital, ran The Woodlands Marathon and completed the 26.2 mile distance in 4 hours, 53 minutes and 25 seconds.

Congratulations to Ingalla and the many other local runners who have participated in races these last two weekends. You are all winners.
