Runners taking advantage of cool weather

By Ken Johnson

There are plenty of spring races in the area and the weather is relatively cool. Local runners are taking advantage of both and using the sport of running and racing to help stay healthy.

Huntsville's super fast Dan Byrne, 56, won his age group at the Texas 10 Series 10-mile race in Plano on Sunday with a time of 1 hour, 6 minutes and 12 seconds. Overall, he was 6th of 138 finishers. Plano was the third race in the 7-race Texas 10 Series. The next race will be in Huntsville on September 27th.

Local forester, Jason Wallace, 40, won the male masters (40 and over) title at the Hog's Hunt 50K Trail Run at Huntsville State Park on Saturday. He completed the 31-mile distance in 5 hours, 15 minutes and 17 seconds. It was his first race longer than a marathon (26.2 miles).

There were plenty of local runners at the Blue Bell Run in Brenham on April 11. The Seven Hills Running Club of Huntsville won first place in the 10K team competition, beating out 7 other teams.

Congratulations to all local runners participating in races. You do not have to be fast to be a winner; you win by staying healthy.
