Huntsville runners take care of leftover turkey in 10K

By Ken Johnson

Huntsville doctor Karin Williams, left, and Houston firefighter, Jacob Gautreaux finished first in the Leftover Turkey 10K race in Huntsville late last month.

Jacob Gautreaux and Karin Williams were the winners in the Leftover Turkey 10K race in Huntsville on Saturday, November 24.

Gautreaux, 40, a Houston firefighter who lives in Huntsville, ran the 6.2-mile out and back course on Veterans Memorial Blvd. in a blistering 37 minutes and 57 seconds.

Williams, 43, a Huntsville doctor and mother of five, was the first female finisher, with a time of 48 minutes and 3 seconds.

In the 5K event, Dominick Hayes, 14, of Huntsville was the fastest male runner, completing the 3.1-mile course in 20 minutes and 37 seconds. Emily Villines, 15, of Huntsville won the female division, with a time of 23:59. Both Hayes and Villines are members of the Huntsville High School track and cross country teams.

Haley Tabor, 17, a senior at Trinity High School, was the overall winner of the 1-Mile race. She finished in 7 minutes and 53 seconds. The fastest male in the 1-mile race was Andrew Fabian, 8, of Huntsville, who finished in 9 minutes and 37 seconds.

Congratulations to all runners and walkers (listed below) who completed these three events.

Also, congratulations to all runners and walkers who completed Huntsville's Christmas in the Pines 5K, held on December 1. For the complete results, visit the Seven Hills Running Club web site, <http://www.7hills.us> and click on Latest News.
